About Pink LaddersTM.com

Pink Ladders is symbolic of the steps women take in their careers. Women that climb “pink ladders” come from all walks of life regardless of race, age, socioeconomic status or education. They may already have successful careers or may be starting their journey. The website is designed and created out of a desire to encourage women to climb their career ladder; a place they can find inspiration and motivation to achieve their career goals.

The Pink ladders website also provides suggestions on how to be a successful woman in business and still spend quality time with loved ones while supporting community projects. There are stories about women’s experiences in climbing their own pink ladders that everyone will find inspiring through the challenges and celebrations of pursuing a career.

About Pink Ladders Task Manager[©].com

When asked how she gets so much accomplished in her day, Angela Newman, CEO of Pink Ladders explains that most career focused women have calendars on their computers, PDA’s, and cell phones. In a shift from the traditional thinking of time management Angela says; “productivity does not come from managing time, it comes from managing tasks”. The Pink Ladders Task Manager[©] is a system for managing tasks, achieving goals and finishing projects on time. It was created and designed by Ms. Newman exclusively for Pink Ladders.

The Pink Ladders Task Manager[©] website is the place to go for information about this exciting new tool. It’s important to increase the value one brings to their organization or business because the more you bring; the more likely you are to succeed. Increase your value today by managing your tasks.
