

Nashville RBI 2009 News

Golf Classic: Nashville RBI hosted its 13th annual golf classic June 1 at Brentwood Country Club. Eighty people participated in the golf tournament, a putting challenge and silent auction, which raised $15,000 for RBI. The proceeds helped provide baseball equipment and uniforms for the boys and girls that participate in the Nashville RBI program.

Baselines and Grapevines: The fourth annual Baselines and Grapevines wine tasting was held Aug. 20 at Miro District Food and Drink. Participants in the event, including Mayor Karl Dean and his wife, Anne, sampled wines from around the world while bidding on a variety of great items in a silent auction. This year's Baselines and Grapevines raised over $8,000 for RBI!
